A Card.

As I will shortly remove from the well known Cigar Store, next to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, I take this opportunity to offer my entire stock of cigars, tobacco, pipes and smokers' articles, contained at the stand, at cost price. Any one buying a box of cigars will get them at manufacturer's price, as the stock must be closed out in a very short time. I do not wish to remove any of it to the store, identical, at 38, Main street, as the stock of cigars, tobacco, pipes and smokers' goods is already large enough to supply all the wants of the public. The business, after the removal, will be carried on at 38, Main street, under the Beckman House, where I hope that all those who have so far favored me with their custom, will put up with the inconvenience of walking a block further, as the quality of the goods will amply reward them for the trouble.

$500 Reward.

S. Nordlinger, the Jeweler, on Commercial street, offers the above reward to any parties who can prove that he does not keep the finest and largest stock of Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry in this town. He would also inform the public at large that he does not keep any plated or cheap jewelry in his house. He also will sell till further notice 4 oz. silver Bartlett Waltham Watches at $30; 14 karat gold Gents' Chains at $1.10 a penny-weight; Watch Crystals at 25 cts. each. In fact, he will sell 25 per cent. cheaper than any other house in this town. For further information call at his store, No. 3 Commercial street, and examine his fine stock of goods.

Borrowing Money.

Borrowing money upon the installment plan is attended with these advantages: The loan can be repaid in small monthly amounts which include the interest and part of the principal, so that the borrower is not inconvenienced by the payment of a large sum at once. The rate of interest is generally lower than the rates of ordinary loans, and it is borrowed upon good paying property, then it often happens that the borrower will meet the monthly installments and in time pay off the debt.

For further and other particulars enquire of W. H. J. BROOKS, Agent for Savings and Loan Society, No. 12 Spring street.

Educational.

On Monday, June 7th, at the Spring street school house, Mrs. F. A. Parker will open a school for a term of seven weeks, term to close one week before the re-opening of the public schools. Tuition for the term—For Third reader and all below, $4; $5 for all above the Third reader. For further particulars enquire of Dr. Luckey, City Superintendent of Schools.

Selling Out.

Selling out! Selling out our entire stock of Dry Goods below cost, as we intend in future to keep only Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Boots and Shoes, and all that pertains to gentlemen's wear. We therefore offer to our patrons and the public in general the greatest bargain in Dry Goods ever offered in this city. For further information, call at the Bazaar, corner of Main and Requena streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel.

Now is Your Time.

Now is your time! No such chance again in one hundred years! The Bazaar is selling out their entire stock of Dry Goods 25 per cent. below cost, as they intend giving up their Dry Goods business and keep only Gents' Furnishing Goods. This is the best sale, but we are selling out of our entire stock of Dry Goods, as you will find at the Bazaar, corner of Main and Requena streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel.

Wm. Farrell, at No. 19 Court street, attends to all business in the way of plumbing and gas and steam pipe fitting. He guarantees satisfaction in all cases and charges reasonable prices. He also refinishes old gas fixtures, making them as good as new. Also, agent for the "Empire gas-burner" and "Economic gas-governor"—both valuable acquisitions to fixtures of a house and great savings over the old style apparatus. Remember the place, No. 19 Court street.

Insurance Agency—Commercial of California, Fire and Marine, assets $500,000; California Insurance Co., assets $500,000; Fire Association of Philadelphia, incorporated 1860, assets $200,000. These companies transact their business at the lowest paying rates, charging for each policy a small commission, assumed, without reference to any insurance combination or arbitrary terms. All losses promptly adjusted.

Silver and gold plating; electroplating; ivory and metal turning; glass and metal drilling. Locks, keys, seals and key-chains, stencils and door-plates made to order; knives and surgical instruments ground and sawed filed and set; paraffin and cement pipes; new instruments repaired; merschaum pipes cleaned and mounted; metal making and repairs on all fancy work and machinery, from a pump to a locomotive. All kinds of sewing machines bought, sold and repaired. Come and see the new sewing machine engine. Sewing Machine Exchange, 39 Spring St.

Moore's Restaurant, on Commercial street, is the proper place to go for a good meal with a good cup of coffee or tea to drink with it. There is probably no restaurant on the Pacific coast where so many of the substantial and so many of the luxuries may be had for 25 cts. Don't forget the place—Moore's Restaurant, Commercial street. Private dining rooms have been newly fitted up for the accommodation of ladies.

Mr. Ed. Dupuy has established a stable and feed yard at the Santa Monica Hotel, for the accommodation of the visiting public to that popular resort. An ample stable and corral have already been constructed and teams will be well cared for at moderate prices. Mr. Dupuy also has a livery connected with his establishment, and will keep fine rigs to let.

If you want a good comfortable bed to sleep on and which will do itself to your body, you should get one of Johannsen & Grosser's new kind of spring bed. They are superior for wear, easiest to handle and save more room than any other spring bed made. Go and see it for yourself at their furniture ware rooms, Main street, corner Commercial and Main streets.

Johannsen & Grosser do the best and neatest upholstering in Southern California. If you have your furniture done in their line, give them a call. They are reasonable in their charges, and keep a full stock of Furniture and Bedding in their ware-rooms, Ducommun's building, Main street, corner Commercial.

125 gents' chevrot suits, in frocks and sacks, at $14, worth $20; 500 pairs heavy cassimere pants at $4 per pair, worth $6, at the Bazaar, corner Main and Requena streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel.

500 gents' cloth Summer hats, at 50 cts. apiece; extra heavy gents' safinet pants from $1.50 up to $3, at Isaac Norton & Co., corner Main and Requena streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel.

If you want a good suit of clothes for a little money, go to the Bazaar, corner of Main and Requena streets, and get one of those $12 suits, worth $17.

The principal organs of sense are concentrated to the forehead by gentlemen, with one of the superior hats which can be had at Desmond's, Main Street.

TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1875.

REPORTS from England represent the MOODY excitement on the wane. This phenomenon has been a surprise to religious and skeptical Englishmen. Moody, by his rough eloquence, has struck a popular chord, while SANKEY, with his beautiful songs, has awakened the music which has laid slumbering in the bosoms of the masses. According to MONCURE D. CONWAY and other correspondents of leading American papers, MOODY's sermons have degenerated into terrorizing tirades, representing God as a kind of ever-watchful Fee-Fo-Fum, on the alert, with ogre-like ferocity, for unfortunate souls to pitch into a seething hell, to be the sport of devils to all eternity. If these reports be true, it accounts for the falling popularity of the revival.

Fourth of July.

THE celebration of Independence Day yesterday was not different from those celebrations that preceded it. The young anticipate the day as a time when law and order are temporarily suspended and Young America can burst the bonds of propriety with impunity. Ninety-nine years ago Fourth of July dawned with more solemnity, the Declaration of Independence was read, more like the last will and testament of the Continental Congress, the toll of the old State House bell sounded the funeral note of many an earnest patriot, and the day closed with earnest prayers to the God of Battle for victory to the patriot army. We celebrate the victory which followed the Declaration, rather than the announcement of its principles, for, had not victory blessed the army of Washington, Fourth of July would to-day be a time of humiliation to the patriots of the world, instead of a day of rejoicing. Our Democratic institutions have stood the test of ninety-nine years; we are on the eve of the Centennial anniversary, with a Union extending from ocean to ocean, and from the gulf of Mexico to the St. Lawrence, and yet our greatest history is in the unborn future. We have tried the strength of the fabric by two foreign wars, and a civil strife of colossal proportions, and the Republic has survived. The three million population of the colonies has swelled to forty millions and the wealth of the nation has increased incalculably. Franklin's idea of free schools has been elaborated until every hamlet in the United States teaches its poor, and education has become as free as air and water. The people are not only free, but intelligent and educated. All men, poor and rich, are equal under the law, and the dissemination of knowledge teaches them to prize their God-given liberty. No corruption in politics can taint our intelligent people, no usurpation can stand before them. The hope of the United States, as well as the world, is in the education of the masses. Tyranny builds on ignorance and superstition, but the corner stone of this Republic is the intelligence of the people. Politicians may plot, parties may battle, but education is the strength of the State and the salvation of the people. With education we will continue our wonderful progress as a nation, celebrating our Centennial year, even our Millennial anniversary; but, with the State would disappear, as did those Republics of ancient history. In this spirit we believe Los Angeles celebrated the Anniversary yesterday. Though in a State absolutely unknown when the revolutionary conflict shook the tottering thrones, yet civilization has given her a high place in the history of California. Our enterprising citizens have laid the foundation of a future great city. They have based the hope of the city on the intelligence and education of the rising generation. The adobe is giving way before the palatial mansion; the Indian hut is superseded by the live city; the desert trail is crossed by the iron rails, and the screaming locomotive wakes the echoes in the mountain vales. And this is not all. The schools are implanting in the youthful mind the ambition to grasp at something higher—a desire for a nobler, better life.

With an educated population, Los Angeles will become better and brighter; enterprising energy will be created and the masses improved politically, socially and morally. Lay deep the foundations of your schools. Divest them of all political prejudice and religious bigotry and superstition. Teach the children that to have health, strength and happiness they must be intelligent, moral and industrious. Show them that moral purity, physical activity and mental education make man happier in this world. Show them that virtue has its own reward and vice carries its own sting. With such mental, moral and physical education, our liberties will be safe, our penal institutions useless and the world a Heaven instead of a Hell.

Mr. H. A. Barclay will please call at this office for a telegraph dispatch requiring immediate attention.

At Fresno on the Fourth, H. C. Dixon will act as orator. E. C. Winchell will read the Declaration of Independence.

The Fair of the San Joaquin Agricultural Society will be held this year at Stockton from the 6th to the 11th of September.

Hay is coming into Santa Rosa in considerable quantities. The ruling price is $15. Last year at this time the price was $10.

The annual session of the Humboldt County Teachers' Institute will commence in Eureka on Tuesday, the 29th inst.

Another rich discovery is reported in Bradshaw district, some two miles from Bradshaw City. J. B. Baxter is the lucky man this time. He has a vein that he calls the Golden Era. It is small, averaging from 14 to 15 inches in width, but is immensely rich in gold for thirty feet along the lode. Some of the rock worked in a hand mortar yielded $5 to the pound.

A little boy about four or five years of age, got lost from his parents in the melee of celebration yesterday, and was kindly taken in charge by Messrs. Summers & Nelson, at the Palace of Sweets, Spring street. He awaits a claimant.

Yesterday morning as the procession was forming, the New York Bakery wagon collided at the corner of First and Spring streets with a buggy occupied by Mr. Valencia and wife, turning it completely over. The horses were secured, and, strange to say, no injury was done to the buggy or occupants.

At a meeting held by the Hebrew Benevolent Society on Sunday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Samuel Meyer, President (re-elected); M. Morris, Vice-President; Michael Levy, Treasurer (re-elected); L. Jacob, Secretary (re-elected); T. L. Hellman, B. Conn, S. Benjamin, Trustees.

Professor Lippard's class of gentlemen in dancing will meet at Leek's Hall to-night for their second lesson. We are glad to learn that the Professor is meeting with excellent success in our city and has a large class already formed. Still, there is always room for one more, and those who are deficient in this most necessary accomplishment should join the class at once so as to secure the benefit of the first lessons.

A runaway occurred in the Arroyo Seco, on Ramirez's ranch yesterday afternoon, which, luckily, was not attended with any serious results. A gentleman and lady riding in a single buggy by careless driving managed to upset their vehicle, and both were thrown to the ground. The buggy at once righted itself and the horse struck out at his best gallop for the river. Mr. Froelinger, who chanced to be near at hand, well mounted, gave chase and succeeded in checking the runaway before any damage had been done. The gentleman and lady who were thrown from the buggy sustained a few slight injuries, but nothing serious.

Enough bunting was thrown to the breeze yesterday to supply an army with banners. Most of the business houses, as well as many private residences, were decorated with the stars and stripes, and vehicles of all descriptions, from the truck to the baby carriage, were equally well supplied. There was a sort of flag-mania prevalent which must have made business uncommonly lively for dealers in the patriotic ensign. Among the rest, the Beckman House was noticeable for its Fourth of July decorations, having, besides the large colors floating from the flag-staff, a multitude of smaller flags displayed from the windows of the entire front. If the American eagle had been flying over Los Angeles yesterday, he would have flapped his wings and crowed.

An elegant young friend of ours who officiates as book-keeper for a wholesale house in the city, was made the victim of a Fourth-of-July joke on Sunday. While out at the Arroyo Seco grove playing the agreeable to a couple of ladies, he came across an honest Granger, who had a young goat in his wagon. Now our elegant young friend is rather deficient in his knowledge of zoology—especially of things that don't have bills to them—and he at once opened negotiations with the aforesaid honest Granger for the purchase of that little deer. He thought that a deer would be a fine present for one of his lady friends, and upon consultation the lady seemed to think so too. So the little animal was purchased for a consideration; the delighted young gentleman stood treat over his bargain, and all was well, until he found out that the deer was a fine present for one of his lady friends, and upon consultation the lady seemed to think so too.
